

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXVI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1909.

NO. 101;

Here and There.

Col. T. W. Moore, a millionaire banker and oil producer, died at his home in Marietta, O.

W. H. Trumbull, of the firm of Walter H. Trumbull & Co., bankers and brokers, of Boston, filed a petition in bankruptcy.

Gov. Willson has fixed Friday, April 9th for the hanging of William Carter, the Louisville Negro, who is under sentence of death.

The West Virginia Senate voted down the proposition to submit to the voters of the State a prohibition amendment to the Constitution.

Thomas S. Doty, a Kentuckian, who for many years had been prominently connected with the legal bar of Goldfield, Nev., is dead.

Daniel W. Whiteneck, a revenue storekeeper died at Lawrenceburg from blood poisoning, resulting from cutting his finger on a bottling machine.

Over 50 per cent. of the rural free delivery mail routes to be established this year will be in the South, where the demand for the service has grown rapidly.

The explosion of a salt works boiler at Hartford, W. Va., killed William Smith, engineer, and William Barnett fireman. Three other men were seriously injured.

Vice President Fairbanks has accepted an invitation to address the Legislature of Indiana on March 8. The invitation was extended at the suggestion of Gov. Marshall.

The Senate passed the pension appropriation bill shortly after it was reported. The House amendment reducing the number of agencies from 18 to one was not concurred in by the upper body.

Robert B. Bledsoe, of Dallas, Tex., who on Tuesday last entered the home of Lawrence M. Jones, a millionaire merchant of Kansas City, and attempted to extort $7,000 from him, was sentenced to 30 years in the penitentiary.

Homer Pollard, incarcerated on the charge of forgery, and Ollie Ball, for horse stealing, broke jail and, escaping, took to the woods. As soon as the officers learned of the elopement a hot chase was given the fugitives and they were finally recaptured and are now again behind the prison bars at Lancaster.

Washington Once Gave Up to three doctors; was kept in bed for five weeks. Blood poison from a spider's bite caused large, deep sores to cover his leg. The doctors failed, then "Bucklen's Arnica Salve" completely cured me," writes John Washington, of Bosqueville, Tex. For eczema, boils, burns and piles its supreme. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

"A farmer is a tiller, is he not?"
"Yep."
"And the thing that steers a boat is a tiller?"
"Yep; only the farmer don't steer no boat; he steers an old dun mule."—Houston Post.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

D. F. Frazee, one of the most prominent business men of Lexington, is dead.

Seven shares of bank stock sold at $185 at Richmond. It was Madison National stock.

At Hyden, Nelson Salyers, the eldest man in that section of the State, died at the age of 104.

Michael Simpson died at his home at Teatersville, Garrard county, of the infirmities of old age.

Walter Parrott, 23 years old, residing near St. Mary's, was run over and cut to pieces by a freight near his home.

Hon. Shelby Gibson, aged 81, and father of Drs. Hugh, Moss and Bert Gibson, of Richmond, died at that place.

J. O. Reid, an employee, fell 30 feet through an elevator shaft at the Lancaster roller mills and was seriously injured.

Mrs. Hester Young, of Jessamine county, has brought suit against Matt Young for $20,000 for killing her husband.

At Barbourville officers rounded up alleged "bootleggers" and made several arrests, the offenders being caught "with the goods on." An organized gang is said to be peddling whisky between Corbin and Middlesboro, making all the towns regularly.

Hon. Boyd Winchester, lawyer, writer and diplomat, is believed to be dying in Louisville. He is 72 years old and was a member of the famous class of 1855 at Center College, was once minister to Switzerland and has practiced law for over 50 years.

At the annual meeting of the National Vaudeville Association in Columbus, O., L. H. Ramsey was elected secretary, which makes Lexington the headquarters of the association of vaudeville managers and installs Ramsey as manager of the Hippodrome Co.

Near Winchester, Zeke Puckett, of Log Lick, found his 16-year-old son lying dead across his plow beam. He and his son were at work on their farm and the father noticing the son's team standing still for some time, went over to investigate. He called and received no answer. When he came up to the plow he found the boy dead.

In reversing the judgment of the Boyle circuit court in the case of Samuel Harding's administrator vs Lucy W. Harding, the court of appeals orders the payment of $5,000 to the administrator for his services, which the court says involved him in a family quarrel and engendered animosity toward him on the part of his brother's widow and her people. An estate of about $60,000 is involved.

Through an advertisement in newspapers the heirs of Press Griffin, an ex-Confederate soldier of Garrard county, have been found in West Virginia. He was a bachelor and went to that county in 1866 and by hard farm work accumulated a valuable blue grass farm and some money. He died last summer leaving a legacy of about $12,000 to an elder brother whom he had not seen or heard of since the surrender at Appomattox. The elder brother has been dead five years but he left a widow and three children who are now on their way to claim the legacy. Press Griffin's brother was a poor blacksmith. Who says it does not pay to advertise?

Soldier Balks Death Plot.

It seemed to J. A. Stone, a civil war veteran, of Kemp, Tex., that a plot existed between a desperate law trouble and the grave to cause his death.

"I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough that stuck to me, in spite of all remedies, for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which restored my health completely. I now weigh 178 pounds." For severe colds, obstinate Coughs, Hemorrhages, Asthma, and to prevent Pneumonia it's unrivaled. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

Guest—Waiter, boil my eggs four minutes.

Waiter—Yes, sir; be ready in half a second, sir.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat. Soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. New Stanford Drug Co.

Even combining the minimum of weight with the maximum of power will not always make the airship fly.

Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. It is the weak nerves that are crying out for help. Vitalize these weak inside controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and see how quickly good health will come to you again. Test it and see! Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

NEWS NOTES.

Harry J. McDonald, a midshipman at the Naval Academy from Kentucky, has resigned.

Three women are dead and two men are seriously ill as a result of eating poisoned sausage at Memphis.

Charles Gillespie, a Negro, charged with criminal assault was put to death in the electric chair at Richmond, Va.

A decree of divorce with alimony of $6,000 a year and the custody of her son was awarded Mrs. William J. Lemp, Jr., in St. Louis.

The rivers and harbors bill, reported to the House, carries nearly $10,000,000 part of which is to be used for surveys of Kentucky streams.

The Kilgore, Tex., State Bank was robbed. The vault door was filed into and the money safe blown open. The robbers secured $3,400.

Because of recent illness Admiral Dewey has declined the President's invitation to go to Hampton Roads to witness the review of the battleship fleet.

Three persons were burned to death and four were fatally injured by an explosion of a keg of mining powder in a coal miner's home near Colliers, W. Va.

The possibilities of the wireless seem to be almost unlimited. Communication was had between Los Angeles and the Hawaiian Islands, a distance of 2,200 miles.

President Roosevelt announced that a call would be issued at once for a world's conference on the conservation of natural resources to be held at The Hague next September.

Caleb Powers presented a petition and made formal application for pardons for John Powers, Charles Finley and W. S. Taylor at Frankfort. Gov. Willson was not in his office at the time.

The earthquake recorded Jan. 23 had its location in the province of Luristan, in Western Persia. Sixty villages were wholly or partially destroyed and the loss of life was between 5,000 and 6,000.

It is announced in Madrid that King Alfonso has accepted the role of arbitrator in the dispute between Germany and England regarding the boundaries of Walfish Bay on the southwest coast of Africa.

Members of Congress are sharply criticizing Senator Beveridge for his absence during the closing days of the session. It is believed that Mr. Beveridge is absenting himself to avoid reporting the joint statehood bill.

Stewart Douglas Robinson, son of Douglas Robinson, President Roosevelt's brother-in-law, a sophomore at Harvard University, fell from a sixth-story window Saturday night and his dead body was discovered early by a policeman.

A dramatic scene took place in the Chicago Federal building when Col. W. F. Tucker and his wife met before the army retiring board, which is considering Col. Tucker's case. Mrs. Tucker fainted on the witness stand, but was soon revived.

A mob of more than 500 persons gathered in the streets of South Omaha and began an assault on the homes of several Greeks, smashing them with bricks, stones and other missiles and otherwise attempting to run the Greeks from the town. The foreigners fired into the crowd, two boys being shot, but not fatally.

The House of Representatives passed the fortifications bill and sent the post-office bill to conference. The sundry civil bill, which was reported, makes no change in the limitation put upon the activities of the secret service. The bill carries a $1,000,000 appropriation for the prosecution of land frauds in the West.

Herbert Knox Smith, Commissioner of Corporations, has made public his report on the American Tobacco Company in which he gives the history of the growth of the big corporation, which he says now dominates the industry absolutely. This report will be followed by others dealing with prices and profits and competitive methods.

Robin J. Cooper was the first witness introduced for the defense at Nashville in the case of the men charged with the murder of former Senator Edward W. Carmack. Cooper was on the stand all day. He declared that Carmack fired the first two shots. His part in the tragedy, he said, came about through his efforts to keep his father, Col. D. B. Cooper, out of trouble.

Mr. Watterson reiterates with more emphasis than ever that a democrat can not be a prohibitionist. It is well for him that Editor Lew B. Brown, late of Harrodsburg, has to go to Florida to live, and Editor E. C. Walton, of Stanford, is forgetting the cares of life among the scenes of his childhood in old Virginia.—Kentucky State Journal.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Gillett, of California, has signed the anti-racetrack gambling bill.

Representative Hepburn denounced the rules of the House in a vigorous speech.

President Roosevelt signed the special act relating to the salary of Secretary of State.

Councilman John F. Klein, of Pittsburgh, was found guilty in connection with the bribery scandal in that city.

Judge L. W. Bethurum has announced for re-election for county judge of Rockcastle, subject to the republican primary.

James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior, is mentioned among the list of men being considered for the presidency of the University of Michigan.

In the Mason-Fleming-Bracken district, Judge Chas. D. Newell was nominated by the democrats for circuit judge of that district Saturday.

The first woman ever to hold a position with the State Board of Equalization is Miss Alice Cronin, of Louisville, who was elected a clerk of the board.

Judge A. R. Burnam was appointed by Gov. Willson to represent this Congressional district at the Tariff National Convention in session at Indianapolis.

J. M. Dickinson, of Tennessee, will be Secretary of War in the Taft Cabinet. Charles Nagel, of St. Louis, will be Secretary of Commerce and Labor and R. A. Ballinger will be Secretary of the Interior.

E. B. Hoover, one of the three candidates for State Senator in the 22nd Senatorial district, has withdrawn from the race. His withdrawal leaves the contest to two candidates, Dr. T. R. Welch and Hon. B. M. Arnett.

Gov. Marshall, of Indiana, sent a message to the Legislature in relation to the condition of the State Treasury. Unless some means are provided to collect taxes in advance of the time they are due the Treasury will be depleted by April 1.

The republican district committee of Pulaski called a primary in the circuit judge's race for April 3 and fixed the entrance fee at $1,500. We don't blame Bro. Jarvis for not tackling the machine and putting up such a big entrance fee for it to use against him.

Harry B. Williams, postmaster at Mentor, Campbell county, Ky., former deputy county clerk for four years, and former member of the Kentucky Legislature from Campbell county, was arrested by Postoffice Inspector C. G. Swain charged with misappropriating $427.76 from the money order department.

The Tennessee Legislature over rode the vetoes of Gov. Patterson, passing over his protest the bills providing for a compulsory legalized primary and for creating, without aid of the executive, State and county election boards. Three separate messages were sent in by the governor, in which he declared the bills were neither fair nor just, and asserted that the "force bill," which once threatened the South, was not more odious to a free people than these three measures.

Gov. Willson has appointed commissioners to represent Kentucky at the Alaska-Pacific-Yukon Exposition which will be held at Seattle, Wash., June 1 to Oct. 15, this year. The governor desires that Kentucky have representation at this great exposition of the Northwest and selected commissioners who have planned to go. They are: Edward M. Flexner, Louisville; J. R. Lemon, Maysfield; B. B. Ross, Shelbyville; S. M. Saufley, Frankfort. W. R. Lyons, Horse Cave.

The Senate was the scene of a bitter personal controversy between Senators Penrose and La Follette. The Pennsylvania Senator denounced his Wisconsin colleague as a "claptrap statesman" and charged that Mr. La Follette had practically done no work in committee since he had been a member of the Senate. The attack was called forth by Mr. La Follette's strictures on the custom of the Senate to allow important legislation to be crowded into the last few days of the session.

Hexamethylenetetramine

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. New Stanford Drug Co.

Capt. Timothy Hasset, of the Olean, N. Y., police force, was killed by a burglar whom he caught in the act of robbing a business office. The policeman shot the burglar four times and it is believed he cannot recover.

It will be the biggest sale ever held by the company and horsemen will be in attendance from all parts of the country.

REDD.—Dr. Robert G. Redd, aged 67, died at the home of his brother, C. A. Redd, at Crab Orchard, about 8 o'clock, Sunday night, of creeping paralysis. Dr. Redd had been an invalid for years and had to give up the practice of medicine a good many years ago on that account. He was a splendid old gentleman and was liked by all who knew him. The burial will take place in the old Whitley burying ground to-day at 2 o'clock, after services by Elder J. G. Livingston. Dr. Redd leaves a very comfortable estate, leaving no family at all.

WE understand that "some democrats" who participated in the late primary election are going around, telling their republican brothers who to nominate for county officers and all will be lovely in November. All that the INTERIOR JOURNAL has to say, that it invites the gentlemen spoken of to become candidates and be nominated for that election and it proposes to skin them from "head to end," as well as the "aggers on." We will wait patiently to get a shot at some of these "distinguished" and we sincerely hope we won't be disappointed.

REX coal is guaranteed. Try it. Denham Bros.

NOTES and accounts collected anywhere in the United States, and no charges unless we collect. May's Collection Agency, Somerset, Ky.

THESE beautiful days suggest the coming of Spring, but don't get too enthusiastic. March is generally the meanest month of the year and you should remember what the ground hog did.

THE Graded School and the banks observed the birthday of the father of our country yesterday. The postoffice officials only took part of it, but we poor newspaper people worked the live-long day.

STANFORD doesn't stand for patriotism at all. Yesterday was the birthday of the father of our country—George Washington—and only 13 flags bearing the colors of this grand country of ours appeared in Stanford—an unlucky number, too. How the mighty has fallen!

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the circuit court Saturday, the jury in the case of John Baugh for maiming D. C. Allen returned a verdict of guilty, fixing his punishment at one year in the penitentiary. Dump Adams and Thos. Ends, for breach of the peace, were fined $5 each. Wade Hampton, for same offense, was fined $25. John Singleton, disturbing religious worship, was hit to the tune of $20. Coy Montgomery, for assault, was fined $5. J. J. Falconberry, for same offense, was fined $50. Wade Hampton, for carrying concealed deadly weapons, was fined $25 and given 10 days in jail. On motion of Judge J. W. Alcorn, Judge Bell was elected chairman of the committee and Clerk J. F. Holdam secretary to draft suitable resolutions on the life of the late Col. T. P. Hill. The committee is as follows: Judges W. C. Bell, J. W. Alcorn, M. C. Sautley and Messrs. J. B. Paxton, J. N. Saunders and P. M. McRoberts. The committee will report Friday. The members of the bars of adjacent towns are cordially invited to come and take part. Jim Tall, colored, was on trial for shooting George Smith when we went to press.

Is a handsome, large young Jersey Bull, descended from a long and unbroken line of the most noted bulls and cows on the island of Jersey England and America. His sire is one of the best bulls ever imported and his dam is a show cow that has given 60 pounds of rich milk in one day. If you believe "Like begets Like" or the Likeness of some Ancestor" and have a strictly good cow, you should avail yourself of his service. He will be allowed to serve a limited number of approved, registered cows outside of our own herd this year, for a fee of $5 each. Make engagement before sending cow to be bred.
